Illinois Global Scholar Committee

School districts offering the Illinois Global Scholar Certificate must list any and all members of the school district's Illinois Global Scholar Committee (GSC). Each GSC must have no fewer than two members and each member must hold a professional educator license endorsed in an administrative area issued pursuant to 23 Ill. Adm. Code 25 (Educator Licensure). Each member of the GSC must also have participated in a training program mandated by the Illinois State Board. Such training must address (1) EdSteps Global Competency Standards, (2) Process steps to implement a Global Scholar Certificate program in the school district, (3) methods of developing and maintaining consistent scoring practices, (4) global competency among educators, (5) opportunities for globally-focused service learning and global collaboration/dialogue opportunities and, (6) Strategies to build a sustainable global education program in schools.

List the names and email and/or phone number of all GSC members using semicolons as separators (For example: John Smith, jsmith@mail.com; Jill Jones, jjones@mail.com, (217) 555-5555).

Scoring Methods

A participating school district may opt to score the Global Scholar Capstone Performance-based Assessment by one of two methods: self-scoring or peer school scoring. Districts opting to participate in this method must send at least one licensed educator who has completed training provided by the Illinois Global Scholar organization. Which scoring method will be used to evaluate the Illinois Global Scholar Capstone Performance Based Assessment?

- Self-scoring (single school district)
- Peer Scoring (multiple school district)
